GUEST SPEAKERS

Jonathan is Mohawk from Ontario, Canada. His father was Mohawk elder and visionary, Rev. Andrew C. Maracle Sr. and his mother was Lillian Jane Ross, daughter of Scottish immigrants of the Bruce and Ross clans. He resides on Tyendinaga Mohawk Nation with his wife and four children.

As visionary and founder of Broken Walls, an internationally recognized First Nations musical group and ministry, Jonathan has travelled the world for the past twenty-four years. The vision of Broken Walls is to see people from cultural minorities restored and able to walk in their true destiny, realizing and able to share their unique gifts and abilities.

Will Keller has been the lead pastor at Westdale Park Free Methodist Church since 2017. Prior to that will served at Marmora and Harrowsmith Free Methodist Church.

Joe Manafio is the lead pastor at Lakeview Free Methodist Church in Saskatoon, SK. Joe was the teaching pastor at Lakeview for six years, and prior to that he was part of a team who planted The Story in Sarnia, ON.

Dyan Moulard is the lead pastor of Cornerstone FMC in Prince Albert, SK. Dyan has experience as an assistant pastor, youth pastor, and as the director of Arlington Beach Camp in SK.
