

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF CHURCH HEALTH

Do you have a passion for seeing a healthy church within the reach of every Canadian? This is the vision of the Free Methodist Church in Canada. As the Senior Director of Church Health, you will work with national and local Free Methodist leaders to revitalize and support local churches.

The Director of Church Health is one of the senior positions, in addition to the Bishop, which makes up the National Leadership Team (NLT) of The Free Methodist Church in Canada (FMCIC). As a member of the senior team, this position is active in all strategy development, interacts with church-wide programs and issues and coordinates a key function to the national network of local churches.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Resources and encourages church health at the local church level utilizing the Regional Coaches
- Develops and oversees Church Health and Church Planting Departments
- Responsible for developing and implementing a strategic plan
- Engages with the FMCIC National Leadership Team
- Provides support and feedback to direct reports
- Supports, trains, and oversees Regional Coaches
- Provides services to churches in transition
- Supports, trains and oversees Church Planting Coaches in conjunction with Church Planting Coordinator
- Facilitates cross-pollination inside and outside the FMCIC
- Click here for the full job description

EDUCATION AND REQUIRED SKILLS

- Coaching, Executive Leadership and Systems Thinking a necessity
- Minimum five years Senior Leadership experience in a Local Church
- Has served on at least one Denominational Committee
- FMCIC Ordination or willingness to obtain ordination in the FMCIC
- Able to maintain confidentiality
- Able to travel frequently
- Relevant Bachelor's Degree
- French - spoken and written an asset

We believe all people are made in the image of God and therefore embrace diversity and endeavour to promote an organizational culture that is enriched by our differences. In The Free Methodist Church in Canada, diversity means fostering a workplace in which individual differences are recognized, appreciated, respected and responded to in ways that fully develop and utilize each person, their talents and strengths. We strive to create an equitable workplace.

APPLY NOW

This posting will close on May 9, 2023. Interviews will be held after the posting closes. Applicants should send resumes to Monique Alexander, monique.alexander@fmcic.ca.